

The Prout School Summer reading Program 2022

Dear Parent/Guardian,

The Prout School encourages students and families to continue reading during the summer months. Literacy research has shown that students often tend to experience the “summer slide” which is a slowing down in reading abilities, vocabulary, comprehension, and focus. This phenomenon is a tendency for students to lose some of the achievement gains they had the previous school year by not reading over the summer. This summer slide will frequently cause students to be less prepared for the academic expectations for the next school year. We want ALL students to have the same chance for academic success from the very first day of school!

Summer reading matters in other ways, also. “Reading empowers critical thinking skills. It can enhance empathy and lead to greater understanding of people who are different from ourselves, and it can help us appreciate other points of view.”(California Library Association) When parents/guardians are able to read the books their children have been assigned for summer reading, the experience can foster wonderful family discussions and build great reading memories. Familial modeling the importance of year-round reading will encourage teenagers in becoming lifelong readers.

Reading is an important part of everyday life! The more our students read, the better readers they will be. If you, or your son/daughter, have any questions pertaining to the summer reading, please free feel to contact Mary Hoyt:mhoyt@theproutschool.org --- 401-789-9262 ext. 530

Grade CP and Honors Ten read two of the novels....Grade CP 11 read three of the novels

Over the summer, students should read the novels and take notes on each one. When class begins, students will write a reflective piece on the assigned reading choices.

One of Us Is Next

by Karen M. McManus

I can't think of a better way to start the year off than by reading the sequel to the bestselling thriller One of Us is Lying. The mystery behind Simon's death may have been solved, but now there is a whole new set of problems to deal with. Someone is reviving Simon's legacy with a deadly game of truth or dare, and the unlucky contestants have no choice but to play. Get ready to gasp, laugh, cringe, and cheer on your second trip to Bayview.

One of Us is Lying

“Pretty Little Liars meets The Breakfast Club” (Entertainment Weekly) in this addictive mystery about what happens when five strangers walk into detention and only four walk out alive.

Pay close attention and you might solve this. On Monday afternoon, five students at Bayview High walk into detention. Bronwyn, the brain, is Yale-bound and never breaks a rule. Addy, the beauty, is the picture-perfect homecoming princess. Nate, the criminal, is already on probation for dealing. Cooper, the athlete, is the all-star baseball pitcher. And Simon, the outcast, is the creator of Bayview High's notorious gossip app...

Dancing at the Pity Party

by Tyler Feder

If you're looking for a compelling graphic novel about loss, grief, and growing up, keep your eyes peeled for this book. Chronicling the author's experience with her mother's cancer, Tyler Feder takes readers from the diagnosis to the funeral and everything that came after. This is a wonderful book for anyone dealing with the loss of a loved one.

The Gilded Ones

by Namina Forna

Did you love Children of Blood and Bone? Then you'll want to get your hands on this irresistible fantasy novel. Set in West Africa, this is the start of an exciting new series about blood, magic, and monsters. When Deka is deemed impure due to her golden blood, she is faced with a choice: stay in her village and accept a fate worse than death, or join an army of gifted girls and fight for the emperor.

Influence

by Sara Shepard and Lilia Buckingham

The author of Pretty Little Liars joined forces with social media personality Lilia Buckingham to bring us a twisty YA mystery set against the fierce world of teen influencers. The story follows four internet superstars, each hiding a dangerous secret that would ruin them if it got out. Fame, fortune, and murder combine in this unforgettable thriller.

Burn Our Bodies Down

by Rory Power

One of the most exciting new voices in YA is Rory Power. Her debut novel Wilder Girls received multiple starred reviews for its terrifying and beautiful originality. Her second book is a creepy mystery about a girl desperate to learn about her roots. When Margot discovers a link to her mysterious past, she follows it to a family and a town where nothing is as it seems. Dark family secrets begin to emerge and Margot finds herself fighting for escape...and her life.

You Have a Match by Emma Lord

When Abby signs up for a DNA service, it's mainly to give her friend and secret love interest, Leo, a nudge...

But she didn't know she's a younger sister.

When the DNA service reveals Abby has a secret sister, shimmery-haired Instagram star Savannah Tully, it's hard to believe they're from the same planet, never mind the same parents — especially considering Savannah, queen of green smoothies, is only a year and a half older than Abby herself. And her parents have a secret that threatens to unravel everything.

A Breath Too Late by Rocky Callen

For fans of Girl in Pieces, All the Bright Places, and Girl, Interrupted comes a haunting and breathtaking YA contemporary debut novel that packs a powerful message: hope can be found in the darkness.

Seventeen-year-old Ellie had no hope left. Yet the day after she dies by suicide, she finds herself in the midst of an out-of-body experience. She is a spectator, swaying between past and present, retracing the events that unfolded prior to her death.

The Girls I've Been by Tess Sharpe

Soon to be a Netflix film starring Millie Bobby Brown!

In this feminist, suspenseful thriller the daughter of a con artist is taken hostage in a bank heist—and will need to tap into all her skills in order to survive.

Written in Starlight by Isabel Ibañez

If the jungle wants you, it will have you.

Catalina Quiroga is a condesa without a country. She's lost the Inkasisa throne, the loyalty of her people, and her best friend. Banished to the perilous Yanu Jungle, Catalina knows her chances of survival are slim, but that won't stop her from trying to escape. Her duty is to rule.

While on her journey, Catalina must reckon with her duty and her heart to find her true calling, which is key to stopping the corruption before it destroys the jungle completely.

Happily Ever Afters by Elise Bryant

Sixteen-year-old Tessa Johnson has never felt like the protagonist in her own life. She's rarely seen herself reflected in the pages of the romance novels she loves. The only place she's a true leading lady is in her own writing—in the swoony love stories she shares only with Caroline, her best friend and #1 devoted reader... she gets further and further away from herself. She risks losing everything she cares about—including the surprising bond she develops with sweet Sam, who lives across the street. She's well on her way to having her own real-life love story, but is it the one she wants, after all?

All That Glitters by Gita Trelease & Everything That Burns by Gita Trelease

Originally published as Enchantée, All That Glitters is Gita Trelease's debut fantasy about an orphaned girl who uses dark magic to save her sister and herself is "a soaring success" (NPR)!

Paris is a labyrinth of twisted streets filled with beggars and thieves, revolutionaries and magicians. Camille Durbonne is one of them. She wishes she weren't...

Tokyo Ever After by Emiko Jean

Izumi Tanaka has never really felt like she fit in—it isn't easy being Japanese American in her small, mostly white, northern California town. Raised by a single mother, it's always been Izumi—or Izzy, because "It's easier this way"—and her mom against the world. But then Izzy discovers a clue to her previously unknown father's identity... and he's none other than the Crown Prince of Japan. Which means outspoken, irreverent Izzy is literally a princess.

Firekeeper's Daughter by Angeline Boulley

As a biracial, unenrolled tribal member and the product of a scandal, Daunis Fontaine has never quite fit in—both in her hometown and on the nearby Ojibwe reservation. When her family is struck by tragedy, Daunis puts her dreams on hold to care for her fragile mother. The only bright spot is meeting Jamie, the charming new recruit on her brother's hockey team.

Furia by Yamile Saied Mendez

In Rosario, Argentina, Camila Hassan lives a double life.

At home, she is a careful daughter, living within her mother's narrow expectations, in her rising-soccer-star brother's shadow, and under the abusive rule of her short-tempered father.

On the field, she is La Furia, a powerhouse of skill and talent. When her team qualifies for the South American tournament, Camila gets the chance to see just how far those talents can take her. In her wildest dreams, she'd get an athletic scholarship to a North American university.

Fable by Adrienne Young

Filled with all of the action, emotion, and lyrical writing that brought readers to Sky in the Deep, New York Times bestselling author Adrienne Young returns with Fable, the first book in this new captivating duology.

Welcome to a world made dangerous by the sea and by those who wish to profit from it. Where a young girl must find her place and her family while trying to survive in a world built for men.

The Light in Hidden Places by Sharon Cameron

One knock at the door, and Stefania has a choice to make...

It is 1943, and for four years, sixteen-year-old Stefania has been working for the Diamant family in their grocery store in Przemysl, Poland, singing her way into their lives and hearts. She has even made a promise to one of their sons, Izio -- a betrothal they must keep secret since she is Catholic and the Diamant's are Jewish.

But everything changes when the German army invades Przemysl. The Diamants are forced into the ghetto, and Stefania is alone in an occupied city, the only one left to care for Helena, her six-year-old sister.

Within These Wicked Walls by Lauren Blackwood

"Lauren Blackwood's can't-miss debut is a magical, Ethiopian-inspired remix of Jane Eyre." -Harper's Bazaar

What the heart desires, the house destroys...

Andromeda is a debtera—an exorcist hired to cleanse households of the Evil Eye. She would be hired, that is, if her mentor hadn't thrown her out before she could earn her license. Now her only hope of steady work is to find a Patron—a rich, well-connected individual who will vouch for her abilities.
